THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE R.SUBHASH REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO.17145 OF 2005

DATED 22-09-2005.

Between:

K.Suresh

.... Petitioner

And

The Superintendent of Police,

Eluru, West Godavari District and 3 others

.... Respondents

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE R.SUBHASH REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO.17145 OF 2005.

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a mandamus to declare the action of respondents in interfering with the petitioner's personal life, liberty and movements and insisting him on appearing before them without there being any crime, at the instance of 4th respondent, as illegal and arbitrary and consequently direct the respondents not to insist him on appearing before the respondents and interfere with his personal liberty.

It is the case of the petitioner that the 4th respondent is claiming the status of wife of the petitioner, which she disputes. It is his case that at the instance of the 4th respondent, the respondents 1 to 3 are interfering with his personal liberty and movements and also insisting him on appearing before them, without there being any case registered against him.

In the counter-affidavit filed on behalf of the respondents 1 to 3, it is stated that they neither visited the house of the petitioner nor interfered with his personal liberty.

In view of the fact that the respondents are not interfering with the petitioner's personal liberty, I dispose of the writ petition placing the stand taken by the respondents
1 to 3 on record to the effect that there is no interference with the petitioner's personal liberty. However, it is made clear that if there is any such interference by the respondents, contrary to the counter-affidavit, it will be viewed very seriously. Further, it is open to the petitioner to approach this Court, in case of any interference by the respondents. No costs.
